The 34th Annual Ottawa International Antique & Classic Boat Show August 8, 2009

At Long Island Lock in Manotick on August 8, 2009!

Long Island Lock located on the Rideau Canal is the site of the 34th Annual Ottawa International Antique and Classic Boat Show.

The historic World Heritage Site Rideau Canal System begins at Kingston, Ontario, just across the St. Lawrence River from Clayton, New York. The Canal provides a delightful three or four day leisurely cruise through beautiful pastoral countryside, magnificent lakes and quaint towns and villages to Ottawa, the Capital of Canada.

Long Island Lock is located just 20 KM south of the Parliament Buildings and just 5 KM north of the village of Manotick. This Parks Canada location provides an attractive park and an historic setting complete with on-site launch ramp, navigable water frontage, plenty of parking for vehicles and boat trailers and quality space for land displays and picnics.

The Parks Canada Forge and interpreters in period costume will add to the Show experience. Staged events throughout the day will include "Boats-in-Motion" and "Ask the Captain" to encourage the visiting public to talk with us about our boats. In addition the kids' "Build-a-Boat" program will be back.

TD Bank River Run for Easter Seals Kids

On Sunday, August 9th, MCBC together with The Swan on the Rideau co-present the "TD Bank River Run for Easter Seals Kids". This event will help send kids with physical disabilities to camp. MCBC Show participants are not required to remit the minimum donation, though pledge forms will be available for those who wish to collect donations on behalf of Easter Seals. The form is used to record collected pledges so appropriate tax donation forms can be forwarded to the donors by the Easter Seals Society. All collected monies can be brought to the Run on Sunday. This is a wonderful opportunity for antique boating to give back to our community. The River Run for Easter Seals Kids will commence with a free breakfast provided by the Swan on the Rideau between 09:00 and 10:00 am for all the show participants partaking in this wonderful charitable event.
